team figures it can take the measure of the Southbridge, Mass., high school team this (Saturday) afternoon at last same spot. The Bay State ball players are said to be real ball players and will give the local boys a better go for their money than most teams they have met this year. Lathrop will be on the ground for the local team and if the men back of him play the brand of ball they played Thursday the game should be an interesting one to watch. Cath-ernham will take the field with the following men: Cerveney, Lathrop, P. Connell

Thompson, B. Hahlgren, J. Fisher

John H. Sullivan and Gerry, Jr.

Martin Clark, 31, of South Coventry, died Friday morning at the home of his son, John Clark, of that place, of infirmities resulting from age. Mr. Clark was born in Ireland and came to this country when a small boy. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Thomas P. Flaherty of South Coventry, and Miss Florence Clark of Providence, and two sons, Thomas Clark and John Clark, both of South Coventry. He made his home with his son John.

Daniel T. Murphy, 54, died late

Thursday night at his home in Scotland,

Pa., after a long illness. He was born in Scotland January 23,

1866, the son of Dennis and Catherine Clark Murphy. He was a farmer and was well known in that locality. Surviving him are his mother, Catherine Murphy, two sisters, Mrs. William Buckley of New London and Miss Catherine Murphy of Scotland; a brother, Sylvester Murphy of Scotland, two nieces, Katherine and Mary Buckley, and two nephews, William and Arthur Buckley, all of New London.

Funeral services for Joseph Arthur

Fitzgerald were held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from his home in this city, with services at St. Mary's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. Edward J. Matilec officiated and read a committal service at the grave in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The bearers were Edward Bergeron, Richard Pickett, Roland Gaudreau and Leo Lebeau.

Rain that fell in torrents in this city

Friday afternoon cooled the atmosphere for about a half hour but soon it became hotter than ever and the slogan in the offices became "shirtsleeves in style."
